

Tall Tale Events - Photo Policy

All Persons or Groups wishing to take photos or videos at any event held by Tall Tale Events Ltd must attain permission from event management before taking pictures or video. Those that are granted permission must adhere to the guidelines laid out by management at each event.

Please be advised that members of or agents on behalf of Tall Tale Events Ltd will be taking photographs and video for event and game promotion purposes during events. Tall Tale Events Ltd reserves the exclusive right to photograph all participants, attendees, performers, exhibitors and volunteers.

If you wish to take photos for commercial reasons, this needs to be arranged and approved at least 2 weeks in advance of any Tall Tale Event and must be posted to the affected games community to inform them of such at least 1 week prior to the event.

Anyone capturing images or footage at a Tall Tale Event may be asked to provide access to the image/footage for use by Tall Tale Events, the rightful holder of all images/footage.

Any reuse or reproduction of photos/videos for commercial purpose without written consent of Tall Tale Events Ltd is strictly prohibited.

It is Tall Tales policy to not use names or personally identifying information unless written permission is attained from the photographed/videoed subject, parent or legal guardian. In the case of social media it is only allowed to tag oneself in any photo or video that is posted. Repeatedly attempting to tag people other than oneself will be met with disciplinary action which could include suspension, banning from Tall Tale Events or even legal action.

If you object to your likeness being used in any form, please inform Tall Tale Events before attending an event. We will make every reasonable effort to ensure that your recognizable likeness does not appear in promotional advertisements.
